Objectives of the event:

To provide people with easy and cheap access to reproductive healthcare services, contraceptives etc.

To educate people about the risk of sexually transmitted diseases resulting from unprotected sex.

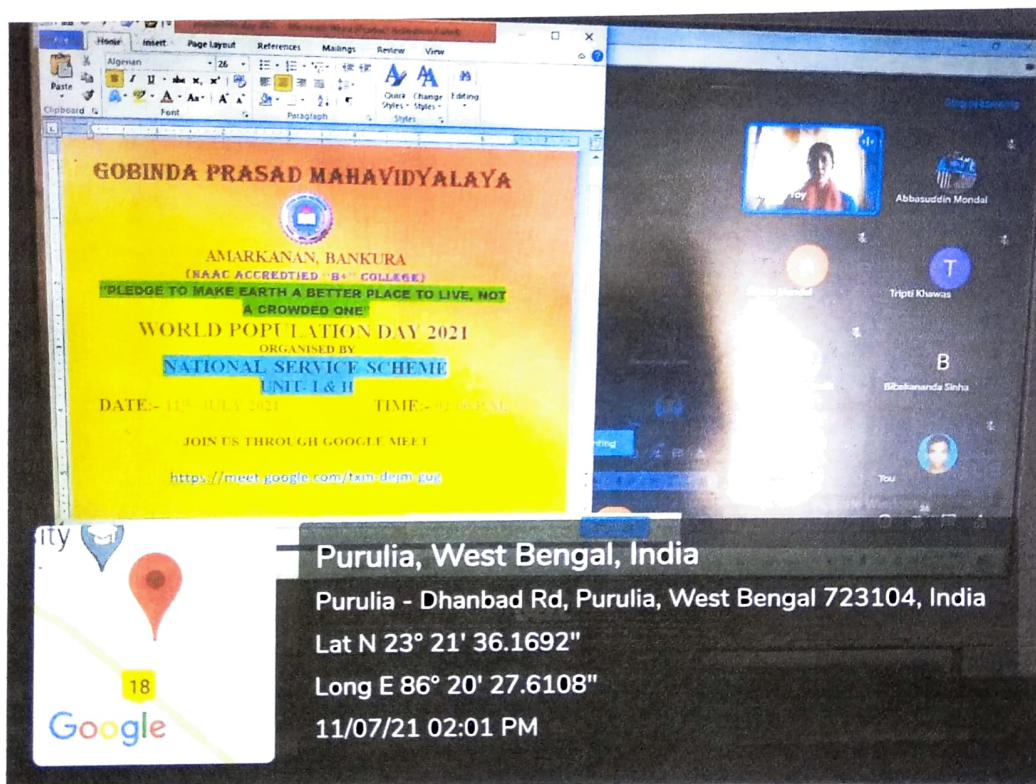

To make people understand the importance of delayed sex and marriage until they are responsible enough to bear the responsibility.

To educate youngsters about various preventive measures to avoid multiple or unplanned pregnancies.

Description of the event:

On the occasion of World Population Day a webinar was organised by NSS UNIT-I and II of Gobinda Prasad Mahavidyalaya to raise awareness among people about the problem of population explosion in India. The two programme officers of the college Mr. Bibekananda Sinha and Sweety Roy Rajguru spoke on the reasons of population explosion and hinted at some possible solutions. The programme officers spoke on the necessity of family planning, the need to use of contraceptives, prohibition of child marriage etc. The motto of the programme was "pledge to make earth a better place to live, not a crowded one". The webinar was a successful one and came to an end with vote of thanks from the two programme officers.
