Action Taken Report on Students Feedback

The feedback forms for students were designed on the curriculum, infrastructure, facilities, evaluation process and execution of the syllabus of the course in the classes. It consisted of ten question based on the curriculum, infrastructure, facilities, evaluation process and execution of the syllabus of the course in the classes. The feedback forms were distributed to the students of the college through all departments and also were collected from them. The feedback provided by the students of all the departments on curriculum under this category has been analyzed. It resulted better than previous year. During this it was established that the curriculum is good enough and meets the academic needs of the students. The college is taking initiatives to conduct various seminars maintaining Covid protocols to enrich the knowledge of the students. Apart from that more extra classes are to be taken considering the load of syllabus. Academic Committee was suggested to make arrangements to schedule some extra classes for the sake of the students. But the college has decided that it will always cater the academic needs of the students based on the existing curriculum. The Academic Committee and Examination Committee were advised to take necessary actions for enriching the academic excellence.

Action Taken Report on Employers Feedback

The feedback forms for Employers were designed on the curriculum, reputation of the institution, Programme Outcomes, and relevance of the syllabus for job after being passed out from this institution. It consisted of seven question based on the curriculum, reputation of the institution, Programme Outcomes, and relevance of the syllabus for job after being passed out from this institution. First the feedback forms were distributed to different Employers like various Publishers for language and literature, PachimRarh Itihas O Sanskriti CharchaKendra for History etc. Then these were collected again from the Employers to judge the parameters mentioned in the feedback form. The feedbacks provided by the Employers under this category have been analyzed and found more or less acceptable. A little improvement was observed. The Career Guidance Cell was suggested to make the students more familiar with different jobs. They were also suggested to invite different Employers to the college and organize seminars on this.
