Alumni Association Members meeting held on 27/03/2023
Time: 2:00 P.M.

(Resolution Sheet)

The President of the Alumni Association, Dr. Koushik Kumar Dutta, presides over the meeting and the following discussions are conducted and certain resolutions are taken under his auspices. The Convener, Mrs Satabdi Roy started the meeting. She thanked everyone for their active participation and presence in the meeting.

1. Read and confirm the proceedings of the last alumni meeting held on 12/09/2022.
2. The Alumni Association recognizes the importance of social responsibility and community engagement. They acknowledged the need to pressing social issues and contribute positively to the society. Therefore it resolved that, the institution must organize Social awareness Programs aimed at raising awareness about key societal issues, such as education, environmental sustainability, diversity and inclusion. Awareness regarding drinking arsenic free water and organizing cleaning programme in Gangdua, a nearby picnic spot, should be undertaken by the NSS Unit this year. The alumni too will contribute to these programs.
3. It is also resolved that for the further development of the college the task of tailoring must be done on a large scale. This community outreach programme will help the girls from the nearby and adopted villages to learn the skill of tailoring and thereby open for them a way to earn a living.
4. The Alumni also proposed that an 'Abaitanik' coaching centre be opened in the institution where the teachers and the alumni will participate in teaching the underprivileged students of our locality. This coaching centre will also provide coaching for competitive exams to the meritorious students who cannot afford to take coaching due to high fees of the coaching institutions.

There being no further points to discuss, the meeting is terminated with thanks to and from the chair.
