Description of the event:

The NSS (National Service Scheme) is a scheme that is operated by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports Ministry of our country. It is controlled by the Government of India and it is highly beneficial to the students who are doing their higher education in which they are provided the opportunity to participate in the community service activities. Every year the NSS Day is celebrated on 24th September. Every student who takes part under the NSS programme is looking forward for this special day to celebrate with students and their teachers. As a part of it, NSS unit I & II of Gobinda Prasad Mahavidyalaya had organized a programme on the same topic on 24.09.2019. More than 90 participants attended the programme. The programme was a successful one and came to an end with vote of thanks from the two Programme Officers.
