Description of the event:

The 26th of January is an auspicious day in the Indian national calendar since it reinforced the idea of India as a democratic republic. As such, the importance of the day is manifold and carries a lot of strategic depth. The NSS Unit I & II of Gobinda Prasad Mahavidyalaya celebrated this very day with due grandeur and reverence in the college campus with the generous participation of the college pupils. The President & the Secretary of the Governing Body hoisted the National Flag at 9.00 a.m. with the teachers and students of the college. They delivered short speeches on the significance of this magnificent day in glowing words. Everyone present came together to sing the National Anthem gracefully. More than 46 participants attended the programme. The Programme Officer concluded the programme with the vote of thanks.
